

*We hope you will be able to join us for The 38th Annual Meeting of the Alabama Association of Historians to be held February 19-20, 2010
at Jacksonville State University*

Jacksonville, Alabama.

Call for Papers

It is with great excitement the Program Committee welcomes proposals from all members of the Association (academic and nonacademic), from affiliated societies, from historians working both inside and outside United States and/or Alabama History, and from scholars in related disciplines. The committee wishes to encourage creativity and innovation, both with regard to intellectual content and presentation. All topics and time periods, as befits AAH's role as a meeting ground for History professors and K-12 teachers are welcome, as are both individual proposals and panel presentations.

Graduate students are encouraged to submit proposals.

All proposals must be submitted by January 15, 2010. Proposals for panels must include a list of all presenters (individual proposals may be asked to join a panel presentation befitting the topic). Proposals must include the following:

A one-page abstract of a 20-minute presentation.

A résumé that includes the author's postal address, e-mail address, telephone number, and academic affiliation, if any.

Please feel free to pass this information along to anyone interested in attending, joining, or presenting.

Questions about the content of proposals should be directed to the Program Committee co-chairs Dr. Tamera Levi and Paul Beezley (pbeezley@jsu.edu). Submissions should be sent to Dr. Levi at tlevi@jsu.edu or
